

2014 Virginia STARTALK Chinese Teacher Academy

The Department of East Asian Languages, Literatures and Cultures at the University of Virginia is pleased to announce its seventh annual teacher residential program in partnership with Virginia STARTALK Chinese Student Academy in the Hometown of the third US president, Thomas Jefferson.

DATES: June 16– July 4, 2014

LOCATION: University of Virginia (Charlottesville, Virginia)

PROGRAM FEATURES

Earn up to five graduate credits in teaching Chinese as a foreign language
Integrate technology & culture into teaching
Receive intensive training and practicum experience
Incorporate authentic materials to create authentic tasks
Compile a comprehensive teaching E-portfolio
Enjoy historic and cultural heritage at Thomas Jefferson's hometown

SCHOLARSHIP & TRAVEL REIMBURSEMENT

$3,000 scholarship and up to $200 travel reimbursement

APPLICATION DEADLINE: Go to <http://tinyurl.com/2014UVaStartalk> complete the online application by the deadline April 15, 2014. Scholarships are awarded based on rolling admission. Act now! Spots are filled up very fast.

FURTHER INFORMATION: Visit <http://www.virginia.edu/startalk> to learn more about the instructors and read about the experience of participants from previous years.

QUESTIONS OR COMMENTS: Send us an email at uva-startalk@virginia.edu for further questions.

Participants may choose to earn either 3 or 5 credits. The program will cover the tuition for 3 credits for all participants. Those interested in receiving the additional 2 credits may choose to do so at their own expense. Travel receipts and other proof of expenses will be required for travel reimbursement.